

Brown, Reeves Wedding

Amanda Brown and Aaron Reeves were married on Saturday, October 23, 2010, during a 1:30 pm Nuptial Mass at St. Francis Xavier Church in Friendsville, Pa. Father Casimir Stanis performed the double-ring ceremony assisted by Deacon Kenneth Brennan.

Amanda is the daughter of Frederick and Janet Brown of Apalachin. She is the granddaughter of Junko Clymer of Nichols and the late Calvin "Sam" Clymer, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brown, Sr.

Aaron is the son of Kenneth Reeves of Sayre and Lori Reeves of Endicott. He is the grandson of Jeanne Buske of Churchville, NY, and the late James Buske, and the late Mr. and Mrs. George Reeves.

The bride was escorted by her father, Frederick Brown

Ashley Stewart, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lindsay Rapp, Kerri Lavender, Kerri Conner, Amanda Malanoski, and Hillary Smith.

The flower girl was Adrianna Reeves, niece of the groom.

John Malanoski, friend of the groom, was best man. The groomsmen were Chris Whitmoyer, Nate West, Jesse Conner, Trevor Shaffer, and Danny Powers.

The ring bearer was Jonathan Soltis, nephew of the bride.

Instead of flowers, bridesmaids carried Vera Bradley Puccini bags, and the maid of honor carried a Vera Bradley Espresso microfiber clutch. The groom, groomsmen, and ring bearer wore ties with the Puccini pattern. The flower girl's basket and the ring bearer's pillow were trimmed with fabric with the Puccini pattern.

Readings during Mass were given by Lorraine Grohoski, aunt of the groom, and bridesmaids Lindsay Rapp and Hillary Smith. The Prayer of the Faithful was given by Beverly Brown, aunt of the bride.

Music was provided by harpist Meredith Bocek who played "Star of County Down" for the mothers' entrance, Pachelbel's Canon for the processional, and "How Beautiful," "The Communion Song," and "Hail Mary, Gentle Woman."

After Communion, the couple enjoyed a surprise performance of "The Irish Wedding Song" by vocalists Roseanne Williams, Mary Sammakia, and Lola Daniels, accompanied on the organ by the bride's father, who also played the recessional song, "Lord of the Dance."

The newlyweds rode in a 1952 Silver Phantom Rolls Royce to the reception at the Treadway Inn in Owego.

The bride is a graduate of Owego Free Academy. She graduated from SUNY-Cortland where she earned a BS in Education. She teaches Fourth Grade at St. Patrick's School in Owego.

The groom is a graduate of Sayre Area High School. He graduated from Alfred State with an AAS degree in Business Administration, and from Bloomsburg University with a BSBA in Marketing and a BSBA in Management. He is an assistant store manager at TOPS Market in Sayre, Pa.

The couple are living in Sayre.
